NATIONAL EGG MARKET AT-A-GLANCE

Prices continued unchanged to higher on the larger sizes, unchanged on the balance. Trade sentiment was fully steady to firm on the larger sizes, mostly steady on the balance. Demand was generally moderate to good, and was usually best into weekend feature activity. Supplies of the larger eggs were usually tight to short, occasionally close balanced. The medium and smaller eggs were mostly adequate for immediate needs. Breaking stock supplies were adequate from regular sources, however, premiums were sought where additional supplies were needed. Some breakers reduced schedules or moved shell eggs into the attractively priced grading channels. Light type hens were fully adequate to ample.

NORTH ATLANTIC In Philadelphia, extra large and large prices were unchanged to 2 cents higher, mediums were unchanged. In Boston, extra large and large prices were unchanged to 5 cents higher, mediums unchanged. In New England, jumbos through large were 2 cents higher and mediums and smalls were unchanged. The market tone was steady for the smaller sizes and firm for the larger sizes. Demand was moderate to good and was best where items were featured. Supplies were available for the smaller sizes and tight to short for the larger sizes. Breaking stock supplies from regular sources were generally adequate for the light to moderate demand. Spent hen availability was fully adequate to ample for current needs.
